SECOND AMENDED ORDER DECLARING JUDICIAL EMERGENCY

The following language is added to the Amended Order Declaring Judicial Emergency filed March 16, 2020:

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 38-3-61, during the time period set forth in the Amended Order Declaring Judicial Emergency, it is hereby ORDERED that no person shall be admitted entry into the courthouses of Forsyth County that (A) has recently traveled outside of the continental United States, (B) has come into physical contact with someone testing positive for Coronavirus (COVID-19), and/or (C) is currently sick unless that person does not currently have a fever defined as a temperature in excess of 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit.

The person denied entry into the courthouse shall be instructed to call the Clerk of Court from outside the courthouse. The Clerk of Court shall determine whether such access can be accommodated via electronic access through the Clerk of Court's website. If the person is seeking to file a document, the Clerk of Court shall determine if the filing can be made electronically or by paper filing.¹ If the Clerk of Court determines that a paper, in-person filing is required, then the screening officer shall provide the person seeking access to the courthouse with gloves and facemask and allow said person such limited courthouse access as necessary to accomplish said filing.

If the person denied entry into the courthouse is there to attend a hearing as either a litigant, witness, or public spectator, such person shall remain outside the courthouse while the appropriate judicial chambers is notified. The Judge to whom the case is scheduled to appear shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances and make a determination as to whether to admit such person.

This Order shall terminate on April 13, 2020, at 11:59 p.m., unless otherwise extended.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 24th day of March, 2020 at 4:50 o'clock p.m.

JEFFREY S. BAGLEY, Chief Judge
Superior Court of Forsyth County
Bell-Forsyth Judicial Circuit

¹ The Clerk of Court shall make this determination pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 15-6-11, Uniform Superior Court Rule 36.16 and the Statewide Minimum Standards for Electronic Filing.

AMENDED ORDER DECLARING JUDICIAL EMERGENCY

Due to the on-going coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, and the resultant public health conditions that it creates which substantially endangers or infringes upon the normal functioning of the judicial system, the ability of persons to avail themselves of the judicial system, and the ability of litigants or others to have access to the courts, or to meet schedules or time deadlines imposed by court order, rule, statute, administrative rule, or regulation, and pursuant to the Order Declaring Judicial Emergency issued by the Chief Justice of the Georgia Supreme Court as authorized under O.C.G.A. § 38-3-61, a judicial emergency is hereby declared pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 38-3-60. This Order shall affect the operations of all classes of courts¹ within the Bell-Forsyth Judicial Circuit.

All court proceedings are suspended with the exception of essential functions necessary to protect health, safety, and liberty of individuals. Essential functions are subject to interpretation; however, as described by the Chief Justice, some matters that fall into the essential function category are: (1) where an immediate liberty or safety concern is present requiring the attention of the court as soon as the court is available; (2) criminal court search warrants, arrest warrants, initial appearances, and bond reviews; (3) domestic abuse temporary protective orders and restraining orders; (4) juvenile court delinquency detention hearings and emergency removal matters; and (5) mental health commitment hearings.

Additionally, the undersigned finds that the following are also essential functions: (1) criminal revocation hearings; (2) criminal motions for bond; (3) criminal pleas in which a defendant is being released from jail; (4) civil emergency motions at the discretion of the assigned judge; (5) habeas corpus proceedings; (6) family violence proceedings; (7) juvenile court preliminary protective hearings; (8) juvenile court delinquency detention hearings; (9) juvenile court dependency adjudications; (10) juvenile court permanency hearings; and (11) terminations of parental rights trials.

To the extent court proceedings are held, they should be done in a manner to limit the risk of exposure, such as by videoconferencing, where possible.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 38-3-62, during the period of this Order, the undersigned hereby suspends, tolls, extends, and otherwise grants relief from any deadlines or other time schedules or filing requirements imposed by other applicable statutes, rules, regulations, or court orders, whether in civil or criminal cases or administrative matters, including, but not limited to any: (1) statute of limitation; (2) time within which to issue a warrant; (3) time within which to try a case for which a demand for speedy trial has been filed; (4) time within which to hold a commitment hearing; (5) deadline or other schedule regarding the detention of a juvenile; (6) time within which to return a bill of indictment or an accusation or to bring a matter before a grand jury; (7) time within which to file a writ of habeas corpus; (8) time within which discovery or any aspect thereof is to be completed; (9) time within which to serve a party; (10) time within which to appeal or to seek the right to appeal any order, ruling, or other determination; and (11) such other legal proceedings as determined to be necessary by the authorized judicial official.

This Order shall terminate on April 13, 2020, at 11:59 p.m., unless otherwise extended.
