

IN THE STATE COURT OF STEPHENS COUNTY

STATE OF GEORGIA

STANDING ORDER OF THE STEPHENS COUNTY STATE COURT
DURING COVID-19

This Court recognizes the gravity of COVID-19 (coronavirus), and it is this Court's intent to best serve and safeguard the community from the spread of said virus during its re-opening;

THEREFORE, the Stephens County State Court hereby ADOPTS as its own the Mountain Judicial Circuit Superior Courts' Standing Order for Online and In-Person Proceedings During the COVID-19 Pandemic entered June 16, 2020 including, but not limited to, requirements for facial coverings, sanitation, courtroom capacity, and social distancing;

FURTHERMORE, in recognition of this Court's voluminous dockets, additional safety precautions have been instituted as follows:

(a) Notices to parties are adapted to address COVID-19 concerns including face masks mandate and an option for certain individuals to be placed on a calendar designated for those who are medically high-risk. Sample notices attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) In-person proceedings will be handled by hearing cases in a staggered manner to limit the number of attorneys and parties in the courtroom at any given time. Parties waiting to be called must remain outside the building until permitted to enter.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that all parties to cases in this Court comply with this Order and the Mountain Judicial Circuit's Order incorporated herein and that the Clerk shall post and broadcast this notice to publicly announce the Court's change in procedure to the local community and affected parties.

SO ORDERED this 9th day of July, 2020.
