Each party is commanded to appear before the Court at the stated time above for their respective court date. The Court will determine the issue of a bench warrant for failure to appear on any person not appearing before the Court. Each participant shall be appropriately dressed and conduct themselves appropriately during the hearing as if they were present in the physical courtroom. The courtroom shall remain open to allow anyone unable to participate via video conferencing to have access to the Court, but all persons entering the building containing the Court shall be subject to the previous orders of the Court regarding COVID-19 precautions.

In the event of questions regarding the procedures to be followed by the Court, the Clerk of Court is available by telephone at 770-967-6336.

SO ORDERED this 18th day of January 2022.
