

General Information on Divorce in Georgia

Look at the County's Superior Court website where you will file to see if they have a Divorce forms packets. Those are the forms you need.

If your county does not have self-help forms, the Southern Judicial Circuit has good all-purpose forms at: <https://southernjudicialcircuit.com/self-help-forms>.

Checklist of Divorce Forms: The forms required for a divorce can be specific for different divorces. For example, if you have children, you need the Divorce with Minor Children forms. Instructional videos explaining some forms are linked below.

- Divorce Complaint and Verification - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zqG4gi8-10E&t=26s>
- Case Filing Form - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7EQjWshFqaM>
- General Civil Domestic Disposition Form - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7EQjWshFqaM>
- Affidavit of Poverty (to ask for waiver of fees) - <https://gsu.hosted.panopto.com/Panopto/Pages/Embed.aspx?id=065d7278-8595-48f4-9b1e-aa6c0119a912>
- Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit (DRFA)
- Child Support Worksheets (Divorces with Children) - <https://csconlinecalc.georgiacourts.gov/frontend/web/index.php>
- Parenting Plans (Divorces with Children)
- Summons and Sheriff's Service form
- Acknowledgment of Service (If the other spouse agrees to the divorce. If not, you can still file for divorce.)
- Settlement Agreement
- Divorcing Parents Seminar Certificate
- Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce form - for the judge to sign

Divorces can be complex. We highly recommend hiring an attorney to assist you, if possible. The State Bar of Georgia's website (<https://gabar.reliaguide.com/home>) has a referral guide. If you are unable to obtain an attorney, you can represent yourself.